

261—102.2(82GA, HF829) Purpose. The purpose of the information technology joint venture fund is to provide financial and technical assistance to encourage joint venture development of targeted IT innovations. The primary purpose of this program is to encourage Iowa IT user companies and Iowa software product companies to work on joint research and development programs to commercialize specialized IT products and services.